

The Friends' Bakeless Bake Sale February – March 2019

Bake Sales are being held every day
But we're going to do it a different way.
No pouring over the cookbook for something to bake,
No cream puffs, brownies, pies, or cookies to make.
No trip to the store to buy what you need,
The winter is no time for that, are we agreed?

No blending, no stirring, no oven heat,
No toppings, no icings...Just stay off your feet!
Your nerves stay unruffled; your kitchen stays neat.
You now have more time to march to your own beat.
What to do first? Find a cozy chair and contemplate
The time, money, and resources needed to bake.

In a little envelope, please put the price
Of that pie or cake or something else nice.
The result is the same; you've shown that you care,
And helped a good cause by giving your share.
You will look back with pride and feel truly glad
For the carefree, BAKELESS bake sale we've had!

Please make checks payable to: Friends of the LRW Library.

Cash donations are also accepted. Thank you.
